Newsletter No 87

Welcome to our first newsletter for 2023. As we predicted, the new ultra-right Israeli government has wasted no time in increasing its brutality and oppression of Palestinians. In the past three weeks, among other things, the new government has:

- Killed 13 Palestinians since the beginning of 2023
- Begun implementing the final ethnic cleansing of Masafer Yatta in the South Hebron hills
- Banned the Palestinian flag in public demonstrations
- Organised a deeply provocative incursion into Al Aqsa Mosque compound – (led by the supporter of anti-Palestinian terrorism and new Minister of National Security, Itamar Ben-Gvir)
- Announced Palestinians will never have the right to self-determination in historic Palestine (Prime Minister Netanyahu had previously said that Israeli Jews have the exclusive right to self-determination in Israel by passing the so-called Nation State Law – now this is to be applied to all of the occupied West Bank)
- Announced plans to dramatically expand illegal Jewish-only settlements on Palestinian land
- Announced the intention to effectively annex the entire occupied West Bank as part of Israel
- Announced plans for parliament to override Israeli courts and the fundamental rights of citizens whenever it suits them

How should we respond?

In two ways:

1 New Zealand must speak out.

Our largest voice is our government's voice (which has so far stayed stony silent on the new racist Israeli government) so we ask that you copy and paste this letter into the email addresses for the Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs

Hon Jacinda Ardern
Prime Minister
j.ardern@ministers.govt.nz

Hon Nanaia Mahuta
Minister of Foreign Affairs
n.mahuta@ministers.govt.nz

Kia ora Ms Ardern and Ms Mahuta,

The newly ultra-right Israeli government has announced plans to fast-track the violation of international law and United Nations resolutions with plans to prioritise illegal settlement building on Palestinian land. Alongside this the new regime has:

- Killed 13 Palestinians since the beginning of 2023
- Begun implementing the final ethnic cleansing of Masafer Yatta in the South Hebron hills
- Banned the Palestinian flag in public demonstrations
- Organised a deeply provocative incursion into Al Aqsa Mosque compound – (led by the supporter of anti-Palestinian terrorism and new Minister of National Security, Itamar Ben-Gvir)
- Announced Palestinians will never have the right to self-determination in historic Palestine (Prime Minister Netanyahu had previously said that Israeli Jews have the exclusive right to self-determination in Israel by passing the so-called Nation State Law – now this is to be applied to all of the occupied West Bank)
- Announced the intention to effectively annex the entire occupied West Bank as part of Israel
- Announced plans for parliament to override Israeli courts and the fundamental rights of citizens whenever it suits them

We expect your government to speak out against these egregious actions by the new Israeli regime. New Zealand must outspokenly oppose the new Israeli regime's intensified oppression and brutality of Palestinians and the denial of their rights.

Our voice counts.

The government has the biggest voice in Aotearoa New Zealand. Please use it without delay to uphold international law and United Nations resolutions.

Nga mihi,

(your name)

Please consider stopping and sending your email before reading on.

It will take less than 2 minutes.

Also, please consider BCCing Secretary@PSNA.nz so we can track how many emails the minister receives.

Or forward your email to me after you have sent it to the Minister.

With each newsletter, the number of emails sent grows.

The more emails we send, the more traction we get.

2) We must step up our campaigning against the racist policies of the new Israeli regime being promoted here in Aotearoa New Zealand.

We need to protest whenever the Israeli Ambassador shows up around the country.

Share this poster with family and friends so we can call out Israeli racism and apartheid against Palestinians in a more co-ordinated way.

Back in the 1980s the New Zealand Anti-Apartheid movement launched a campaign to close the South Africa consulate in Wellington. A critical part of this campaign was to target the South African Consul General with public protest whenever he turned up to promote apartheid. The campaign was successful with the government forcing the closure of the consul-general's information service (its propaganda wing) In a fit of pique the South African government then closed its consulate entirely – a victory in the campaign to isolate South Africa's apartheid regime.

In 2023 the Palestine Solidarity Network Aotearoa is launching a similar campaign to close apartheid Israel's embassy in Wellington. We need our supporters everywhere to help by letting us know whenever Ran Yaakoby is to speak and we will be there to protest. Help to spread the poster above among family, friends and work colleagues.
If you see him on the street give him a piece of your mind.

We will not stand by while the racist Israeli government continues its brutal oppression of Palestinians.

Join the campaign to close the racist Israeli embassy!

Two quick stories we spotted online:

- 1) US State Representative calls Israel "an apartheid run thuggery terrorist regime"

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, January 3, 2023 (WAFA) - Massachusetts State Representative Jamie Zaslaway Belsito strongly slammed Israel's policies against Palestinians, saying it's on a "mission to kill Palestinians," and steal their lands.

The politician, represents the 4th Essex district in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, took it to her official Twitter page to say that Israel "is an apartheid run thuggery terrorist regime," while calling on the US to acknowledge that.

"The US must acknowledge that the Israel administration is an apartheid run thuggery terrorist regime on a mission to kill Palestinians," she said.

"Killing and land taking has nothing to do with anti-semitism. It is genocide."

- 2) War criminal Benjamin Netanyahu

Let's recap what we've disrupted this year. We recently blocked the elevators to an event the New York Times was hosting with BlackRock CEO Larry Fink and war criminal Benjamin Netanyahu. 🙋

Attempts to Gag this 'turbulent priest' are Bound to Fail

Facebook shuts down Fr Manuel Musallam in a naked attempt to end the discussion on Jerusalem, Al-Aqsa

By Stuart Littlewood
January 13, 2023

So, Facebook, without warning, has suspended Fr Manuel Musallam's account. Was it because he recently called on Christians in Jerusalem and across historic Palestine "to stand side-by-side along with Muslim brothers, defending Al-Aqsa Mosque from the Israeli aggression"?

Or because he said that "protecting Al-Aqsa Mosque means protecting the Church of Holy Sepulchre and the Church of Nativity, as well as the Islamic and Christian existence in Palestine"? Fr Manuel retired in 2010 at the age of 71 after serving as parish priest of the Holy Family Church in Gaza for 14 years. For most of that time, the Israelis wouldn't allow him to visit his own family and friends in the West Bank, a few miles away. So, in spite of failing health, he soldiered on through the devastating siege and the murderous blitzkrieg.

But retirement hasn't silenced him or dimmed his perceptions. He's been busier than ever in the Palestinian cause.

In 2010 I wrote a piece saying I was privileged to have met him and just loved the way the man speaks out, doesn't mince words, and tells it the way it is, with truth and style. Back then, at Easter time he was concerned, as always, about the Occupation and how it robbed those in the Holy Land of Easter's message of hope and joy.

"We Christians of Palestine have been under Occupation for many long years. We've been suffering with bitterness being kept away from the Holy Sites. We've been denied our right to worship in Jerusalem. Many Christian generations have never been able to reach Jerusalem to visit its holy places.

"The Occupation has been continuously imposing unlawful obstacles. This year, we are confronted by the Israeli Apartheid Separation Wall, checkpoints, and roadblocks guarded by Israeli soldiers denying us movement and access to Jerusalem.

"All these measures not only suffocate the Palestinian people but also asphyxiate peace in Israel and Palestine."

He complained about how Palestinians were denied the freedom to worship as and where they pleased, even at Easter. In particular, they were prevented from going into Jerusalem. The Zionists claimed Palestine was 'a land without a people for a people without a land'. "It does not mean that Jerusalem is without a people, but rather it should be evacuated to be handed over to another people. David Ben Gurion himself articulated the plan in 1937 when he declared: 'We must expel Arabs and take their places.'

"Every stone built in the Apartheid Wall, every axe strike digging under the Al-Aqsa Mosque and every house destroyed by Israel will increase the intensity of resistance and resentment...." He warned of the relentless Zionist program to completely Judaize Jerusalem, alter its features, expel its people, destroy its houses, seize its land and build numerous settlements. "We lament Jerusalem, and miss its beautiful ceremonies."

Easter symbolizes liberation from sin and slavery but hopes of national liberation were evaporating. The slavery and humiliation of occupation were felt more keenly than ever by Palestinian Christians.

"We do not foresee any political settlement, or an end to the occupation, or hope for the return of Palestinian refugees, or the forming of our state with Jerusalem as its capital, or the right to self-determination, or the liberation of thousands of prisoners, free access and movement, an end to Gaza siege, and the dismantling of the Apartheid Wall around Jerusalem.

"We are appalled by the continuous threats of more war. And we are distressed by the daily humiliation, hunger, thirst, unemployment, and the absence of sustainable development in our country." The world's silence was perplexing, he said, and the international community seemed unable to implement the resolutions it used to create the State of Israel. Events only led closer to the abyss.

'Jerusalem is ours. It is not a disputed land'

He reminded us that Palestinians had been building and enhancing Jerusalem for 5000 years and never stopped... except during the Occupation, which had practically destroyed everything that was accomplished. Unable to find any traces of their own heritage, the Occupiers had annexed some of the Palestinians' holy places. "Jerusalem was the city of God, peace, and prayer but has been converted into a city of man, war and hatred. Instead of becoming the key to the doors of heaven, it has become a key to war and blood."

Jerusalem, the holiest place on earth, is now the focus of sin and crime, he says, because one man is killing another, insulting him and trampling his dignity and his right to live. "Jerusalem is ours. It is not a disputed land. We are not soliciting to share the legacy and heritage of Jerusalem with Israel or with anyone else.

"Jerusalem, instead of becoming the key to the doors of heaven, has become a key to war and blood."

He didn't accept the claim by Israeli leaders that Jerusalem is the capital of Israel and that building in it is no different from building in Tel Aviv. "Occupation is a sin and a form of terrorism, and when relying on the texts of the Torah to kill people or expel and remove them from their land it rises to the level of a crime against humanity. All perpetrators should be judged by the International Criminal Court before being judged by the just court of God." And those who fail to condemn Israel become accomplices.

Supporters of Netanyahu's remarks, and those who fail to condemn them, simply give Israel more time and excuses to intensify its crimes against the Palestinian people. Hence they become accomplices in a "sin against the nations".

In his appeal to the world that Easter, he said: "Israel has devastated and tortured us in their many wars. We ask you to see the wounds of innocent Palestinian people and to be compassionate towards the Palestinian holocaust that you witness with your own eyes and touch with your own hands, and to know those who perpetrated this crime against our children. Search with us for justice that is the mother of peace. Protect us and safeguard our Holy Sites."

'Our love for God is in intensive care'

In 2008 Fr Manuel was with his Christian community during their darkest hour when Israel, with a nod from America and the EU, unleashed a deadly onslaught intended to finally crush the half-starved Gazans. At the height of the killing spree, Fr Manuel sent this message from the smoking ruins to anyone who would listen: "Our people in Gaza are treated like animals in a zoo.

They eat but remain hungry, they cry, but no one wipes their tears. There is no water, no electricity, no food, only fear, terror, and blockade... Our children are living in a state of trauma and fear. They are sick from it and for other reasons such as malnutrition, poverty, and the cold... The hospitals did not have basic first aid before the war and now thousands of wounded and sick are pouring in and they are performing operations in the corridors. The situation is frightening and sad."

In exasperation, he added: "May Christ's compassion revive our love for God even though it is currently in 'intensive care'."

What a man!

Wimpish churchmen and politicians in the West would wet their pants at the very thought of speaking plainly against Zionist lawlessness and cruelty the way Fr Manuel does, which is why the Holy Land is such an unholy mess. Their cowardice ensures that nothing changes for the better. Indeed, the situation gets progressively worse.

We badly need many more good and turbulent priests. They inspire. They might even succeed in goading the wobbly international community to action. Meanwhile, it seems God still has work for Fr Manuel, even in retirement.

Amnesty International Campaign – Free Ahmad Manasra

This message is from Amnesty International

Mōrena friends,

I last asked you to take action on behalf of Palestinian youth Ahmad Manasra on December 5, and I am now asking you to send a solidarity birthday card to him.

Ahmad was born on 22 January 2002. This year he will spend his 21st birthday in solitary confinement for the second year running. It will be the eighth time he spends the day in detention.

Ahmad is a Palestinian arrested in 2015 at the age of 13, who has developed serious psychiatric conditions while in prison, and who has been in solitary confinement since early November 2021. His mental health has deteriorated to the level of life-threatening risk.

TAKE ACTION

Please write birthday greetings and other supportive messages to Ahmad ahead of his birthday

Please note: Palestinians celebrate birthdays with cakes, presents and candles, but images of champagne glasses clinking, for instance, would not be culturally appropriate because of the reference to alcohol.

Please send cards to:

Are you able to donate a cup of coffee a month to the campaign?

We will need some serious money to make our campaign as effective as possible. For example, we will need somewhere in the vicinity of $25,000 to bring speakers to New Zealand over the next year and organise large public meetings to help spread the message.

You can help. Are you able to donate a cup of coffee a month to the campaign? In other words, can you afford to make an automatic payment of $5 per month to support the Palestinian struggle? (If you can afford more that would be great!)

In Occupied Palestine daily newsletter – an invitation to subscribe from Leslie Bravery

Because of mainstream news media complicity, daily headlines and commentary only occasionally ever mention the relentless Israeli violence in Palestine, not even the frequent air strikes!

However, daily news and statistics regarding the violence Palestinians are forced to live under are regularly reported on in the “In Occupied Palestine daily newsletter”, sourced and compiled for easy reading and correlation chiefly from the Palestinian Monitoring Group's daily situation reports.

The “In Occupied Palestine” daily newsletter continues to be circulated, by email, worldwide to subscribers only, as it has been over the last two decades.
